UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

JIMMY AVILA,

Plaintiff,

-against-

SUN RIVER HEALTH, INC.; MELISSA SHOUPE; LESTER, Defendants.

22-CV-9221 (LTS)

ORDER TO AMEND

LAURA TAYLOR SWAIN, Chief United States District Judge:

Plaintiff, who is appearing pro se, brings this action under "28 U.S.C. §§ 1346 and 2671, as well as The Rehabilitation Act of 1973, The Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), The New York City Human Rights Law, and The New York State Human Rights Law," alleging that Defendants refused "to provide required Medical Accommodations in retaliation for Plaintiff's federally protected activity. Which included reporting MELISSA SHOUPE, and LESTER'S illegal acts to their colleagues, respective agencies, and local authorities." (ECF No. 2 at 1.) By order dated February 8, 2023, the Court granted Plaintiff's request to proceed in forma pauperis ("IFP"), that is, without prepayment of fees. For the reasons set forth below, the Court grants Plaintiff leave to file an amended complaint within sixty days of the date of this order.

STANDARD OF REVIEW

The Court must dismiss an IFP complaint, or any portion of the complaint, that is frivolous or malicious, fails to state a claim on which relief may be granted, or seeks monetary relief from a defendant who is immune from such relief. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B); see Livingston v. Adirondack Beverage Co., 141 F.3d 434, 437 (2d Cir. 1998). The Court must also dismiss a complaint when the Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction of the claims raised. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(h)(3).

While the law mandates dismissal on any of these grounds, the Court is obliged to construe pro se pleadings liberally, Harris v. Mills, 572 F.3d 66, 72 (2d Cir. 2009), and interpret them to raise the "strongest [claims] that they suggest," Triestman v. Fed. Bureau of Prisons, 470 F.3d 471, 474 (2d Cir. 2006) (internal quotation marks and citations omitted) (emphasis in original). But the "special solicitude" in pro se cases, id. at 475 (citation omitted), has its limits – to state a claim, pro se pleadings still must comply with Rule 8 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, which requires a complaint to make a short and plain statement showing that the pleader is entitled to relief.

Rule 8 requires a complaint to include enough facts to state a claim for relief "that is plausible on its face." Bell Atl. Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 570 (2007). A claim is facially plausible if the plaintiff pleads enough factual detail to allow the Court to draw the inference that the defendant is liable for the alleged misconduct. In reviewing the complaint, the Court must accept all well-pleaded factual allegations as true. Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 678-79 (2009). But it does not have to accept as true "[t]hreadbare recitals of the elements of a cause of action," which are essentially just legal conclusions. Twombly, 550 U.S. at 555. After separating legal conclusions from well-pleaded factual allegations, the Court must determine whether those facts make it plausible – not merely possible – that the pleader is entitled to relief. Id.

BACKGROUND

Plaintiff Jimmy Avila, who resides at 1212 Grant Avenue, Apt. 1C, Bronx, New York, brings this action alleging that he has "established protected class status through the medical accommodation requests made to Defendants" based on a letter from Ted Martynowicz, DO, Defendant "Sun River Health's OWN Doctor," dated March 22, 2020. (ECF No. 2 at 2.) Dr. Martynowicz's letter indicates that Plaintiff will "require a safety transfer from BASIC to a ONE BEDROOM apartment at an alternate scatter sight." (ECF No. 2 at 2, 24.) Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed to ensure that he received the recommended safety transfer, and he brings this action seeking declaratory relief, injunctive relief, and unspecified monetary damages.

On September 8, 2022, approximately one month prior to filing this action, Plaintiff filed an action in this court against different defendants, for their failure to accommodate Plaintiff's housing request, based on the same March 22, 2020, letter from Dr. Martynowicz referenced in this action, in violation of the ADA and the Fair Housing Act.² See Avila v. Acacia Network, Inc., ECF 1:22-CV-7657, 2 (S.D.N.Y. filed Sept. 8, 2022).

On August 28, 2018, Plaintiff, who, at that time, was residing at his current address, filed a complaint against 1212 Grant Realty, LLC, Basics, Inc., Lorraine Coleman, and Jacob Finkelstein, alleging that defendants retaliated against him by attempting to evict him, in violation of the FHA. See Avila v. 1212 Grant Realty, LLC, ECF 1:18-CV-7851, 130 (S.D.N.Y.

² A review of the Public Access to Court Electronic Records (PACER) system shows that Plaintiff has previously filed three other lawsuits against some of the same defendants named in this action about discrimination in housing. On April 22, 2015, Plaintiff, who, at the time, was residing at 880 Tinton Ave., Apt. 1N, Bronx, New York, filed the first action against Janice Glenn Slaughter and OH 161st Street L.P., alleging that defendants discriminated against him on the basis of his disability, in violation of the FHA. See Avila v. Slaughter, ECF 1:15-CV-3188, 20 (S.D.N.Y. July 28, 2015). That action was voluntarily dismissed without prejudice. Id.

On November 15, 2017, Plaintiff, who, at that time, was residing at his current address, filed the second action against BASICS, Inc., Lorraine Coleman, Aja Douglas, 1212 Grant Realty LLC, and Jacob Finkelstein, alleging that they violated his rights under the FHA, in retaliation for Plaintiff winning judgments, in the Civil Court of the City of New York, against 1212 Grant Realty LLC and Jacob Finkelstein. See Avila v. Basics, Inc., ECF 1:17-CV-8916, 6 (S.D.N.Y. Nov. 20, 2017). By Memorandum Opinion and Order dated November 20, 2017, the Honorable Jesse M. Furman, of this court, denied Plaintiff's request for injunctive relief and dismissed that complaint for failure to state a plausible claim for relief under the FHA. Id. Judge Furman granted Plaintiff leave to file an amended complaint within 30 days, but Plaintiff did not amend his complaint in that case.

DISCUSSION

A. The Americans with Disabilities Act and the Rehabilitation Act

The ADA prohibits discrimination against the disabled in major areas of life. The statute consists of three parts: Title I, 42 U.S.C. § 12111 et seq., which prohibits discrimination in employment; Title II, 42 U.S.C. § 12131 et seq., which prohibits discrimination by public entities; and Title III, 42 U.S.C. § 12181 et seq., which prohibits discrimination in access to public accommodations. PGA Tour, Inc. v. Martin, 532 U.S. 661, 675 (2001).

Title II of the ADA provides that "no qualified individual with a disability shall, by reason of such disability, be excluded from participation in or be denied the benefits of the services, programs, or activities of a public entity, or be subjected to discrimination by any such entity." 42 U.S.C. § 12132. The Rehabilitation Act of 1973 includes a similar provision governing programs that receive federal funding.³ 29 U.S.C. § 794(a). To assert a claim under these provisions, a plaintiff must demonstrate that (1) he is a qualified individual with a disability; (2) the defendant is subject to one of the Acts; and (3) he was denied the opportunity to participate in or benefit from the defendant's services, programs, or activities, or was otherwise discriminated against by the defendant because of his disability."

McElwee v. Cnty. of Orange, 700 F.3d 635, 640 (2d Cir. 2012) (quoting Powell v. Nat'l Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 364 F.3d 79, 85 (2d Cir. 2004)). Generally, "a defendant discriminates when it fails to make a reasonable accommodation that would permit a qualified disabled individual 'to have access to and take a meaningful part in public services." Id. at 640.

Apr. 26, 2021). In that action, Plaintiff and defendants reached a settlement and stipulated to dismiss the action with prejudice, with regard to all defendants. Id.

Title III of the ADA provides that "[n]o individual shall be discriminated against on the basis of disability in the full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations of any place of public accommodation." 42 U.S.C. § 12182(a). The provision further states that [i]t shall be discriminatory to afford an individual or class of individuals, on the basis of a disability or disabilities of such individual or class, directly, or through contractual, licensing, or other arrangements with the opportunity to participate in or benefit from a good, service, facility, privilege, advantage, or accommodation that is not equal to that afforded to other individuals.

42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(1)(A)(ii) (emphasis added); see also Camarillo v. Carrols Corp., 518 F.3d 153, 156 (2d Cir. 2008).

Because the standards under the ADA and the Rehabilitation Act "are generally the same and the subtle distinctions between the statutes are not implicated in this case, '[the Court will] treat claims under the two statutes identically" for the purposes of this order, except where otherwise noted. Wright v. N.Y. State Dep't of Corrs., 831 F.3d 64, 72 (2d Cir. 2016) (quoting Henrietta D. v. Bloomberg, 331 F.3d 261, 272 (2d Cir. 2003)).

As a threshold issue, the Court must determine whether the complaint, liberally construed, shows that Plaintiff is disabled within the meaning of the ADA and Rehabilitation Act. A person is disabled under the statutes if the person has "a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities." 42 U.S.C. § 12102(1)(A).

Even assuming that Plaintiff has a disability, which he has not fully explained, for the purpose of the ADA and the Rehabilitation Act and that he is subject to the protections of these statutes, Plaintiff has alleged no facts showing that he was denied the opportunity to participate in or benefit from Defendants' services, programs, or activities, or was otherwise discriminated against by Defendants by reason of his disability. See Smith v. NYCHA, 410 F. App'x 404, 406 (2d Cir. 2011) (summary order) (discussion in the context of claims under the Fair Housing Act and Title II of the ADA arising from NYCHA's failure to carry out repairs in its apartments). Plaintiff fails to show that Defendants discriminated against him because of his disability in violation of the ADA or the Rehabilitation Act.

The Court grants Plaintiff leave to amend his complaint to allege facts to state a claim under Title II of the ADA and the Rehabilitation Act. If Plaintiff chooses to amend his complaint, he must allege facts to support his disability discrimination claims. Plaintiff must demonstrate that he is a qualified individual with a disability, that Defendants are subject to the ADA and the Rehabilitation Act, and that he was denied the opportunity to participate in Defendants' programs, activities, or services because of his disability or that Defendants otherwise discriminated against him because of his disability.

B. Request for Injunctive Relief

Plaintiff has filed an application for preliminary injunction. To obtain such relief, Plaintiff must show: (1) that he is likely to suffer irreparable harm, and (2) either (a) a likelihood of success on the merits of his case or (b) sufficiently serious questions going to the merits to make them a fair ground for litigation and a balance of hardships tipping decidedly in his favor. See UBS Fin. Servs., Inc. v. W.V. Univ. Hosps., Inc., 660 F. 3d 643, 648 (2d Cir. 2011) (citation and internal quotation marks omitted); Wright v. Giuliani, 230 F.3d 543, 547 (2000). Preliminary injunctive relief "is an extraordinary and drastic remedy, one that should not be granted unless the movant, by a clear showing, carries the burden of persuasion." Moore v. Consol. Edison Co. of N.Y., Inc., 409 F.3d 506, 510 (2d Cir. 2005) (internal quotation marks and citation omitted).

As set forth above, Plaintiff fails to state a claim for relief under the ADA or the Rehabilitation Act. The Court therefore finds that Plaintiff has not, at this time, shown (1) a likelihood of success on the merits, or (2) sufficiently serious questions going to the merits to make them a fair ground for litigation and a balance of hardships tipping decidedly in his favor.

Accordingly, Plaintiff's request for injunctive relief is denied without prejudice to renewal at a later date.

LEAVE TO AMEND

Plaintiff proceeds in this matter without the benefit of an attorney. District courts generally should grant a self-represented plaintiff an opportunity to amend a complaint to cure its defects, unless amendment would be futile. See Hill v. Curcione, 657 F.3d 116, 123-24 (2d Cir. 2011); Salahuddin v. Cuomo, 861 F.2d 40, 42 (2d Cir. 1988). Indeed, the Second Circuit has cautioned that district courts "should not dismiss [a pro se complaint] without granting leave to amend at least once when a liberal reading of the complaint gives any indication that a valid claim might be stated." Cuoco v. Moritsugu, 222 F.3d 99, 112 (2d Cir. 2000) (quoting Gomez v. USAA Fed. Sav. Bank, 171 F.3d 794, 795 (2d Cir. 1999)). Because Plaintiff may be able to allege facts to state valid ADA and Rehabilitation Act claims, the Court grants Plaintiff sixty days' leave to amend his complaint to detail his claims.

Plaintiff is granted leave to amend his complaint to provide more facts to support his claims. In the "Statement of Claim" section of the amended complaint form, Plaintiff must provide a short and plain statement of the relevant facts supporting each claim against each Defendant. If Plaintiff has an address for any named Defendant, Plaintiff must provide it. Plaintiff should include all of the information in the amended complaint that Plaintiff wants the Court to consider in deciding whether the amended complaint states a claim for relief. That information should include:

- a) the names and titles of all relevant people;
- b) a description of all relevant events, including what each defendant did or failed to do, the approximate date and time of each event, and the general location where each event occurred;
- c) a description of the injuries Plaintiff suffered; and

d) the relief Plaintiff seeks, such as money damages, injunctive relief, or declaratory relief.

Essentially, Plaintiff's amended complaint should tell the Court: who violated his federally protected rights and how; when and where such violations occurred; and why Plaintiff is entitled to relief.

Because Plaintiff's amended complaint will completely replace, not supplement, the original complaint, any facts or claims that Plaintiff wants to include from the original complaint must be repeated in the amended complaint.

Plaintiff may consider contacting the New York Legal Assistance Group's (NYLAG)

Legal Clinic for Pro Se Litigants in the Southern District of New York, which is a free legal clinic staffed by attorneys and paralegals to assist those who are representing themselves in civil lawsuits in this court. A copy of the flyer with details of the clinic is attached to this order. The clinic is currently available only by telephone.

CONCLUSION

Plaintiff is granted leave to file an amended complaint that complies with the standards set forth above. Plaintiff must submit the amended complaint to this Court's Pro Se Intake Unit within sixty days of the date of this order, caption the document as an "Amended Complaint," and label the document with docket number 22-CV-9221 (LTS). An Amended Complaint form is attached to this order. No summons will issue at this time. If Plaintiff fails to comply within the time allowed, and he cannot show good cause to excuse such failure, the complaint will be dismissed for failure to state a claim upon which relief may be granted.

Plaintiff's application for preliminary injunction (ECF No. 3) is denied without prejudice to renewal at a later date.

The Court certifies under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(3) that any appeal from this order would not be taken in good faith, and therefore IFP status is denied for the purpose of an appeal. Cf. Coppedge v. United States, 369 U.S. 438, 444-45 (1962) (holding that an appellant demonstrates good faith when he seeks review of a nonfrivolous issue).

See Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 5.2.

I. BASIS FOR JURISDICTION

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation, and the amount in controversy is more than $75,000, is a diversity case. In a diversity case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

Disclaimer: The information contained herein is for informational purposes only and is not legal advice or a substitute for legal counsel, nor does it constitute advertising or a solicitation.

The NYLAG Legal Clinic for Pro Se Litigants in the Southern District of New York provides free limited legal assistance to individuals who are representing themselves or planning to represent themselves in civil lawsuits in federal court in Manhattan and White Plains. The clinic is staffed by attorneys, law students, and paralegals. Information given to clinic staff is confidential.

Clinic Staff Can:

- Advise on filing cases in federal court, including on the issue of whether a case should be filed in the Southern District of New York or somewhere else;
- Provide legal advice in response to questions that come up at any stage of litigation;
- Assist in getting additional information or research into the legal issue in your case;
- Review and explain court orders and filings by your opponent, and provide an overview of the federal legal process in civil cases generally;
- Assist with motions, discovery, and strategy;
- Assist with getting ready for depositions, pretrial conferences, mediations, and court appearances;
- Provide forms and instructions manuals;
- In appropriate cases, help you retain pro bono counsel;
- In appropriate cases, represent you in a mediation through the Southern District's Alternative Dispute Resolution Program, or a court-ordered settlement conference;
- In appropriate cases, represent you at a deposition; and
- In appropriate cases, provide referrals to other agencies and organizations that provide civil legal services and/or social services.

Use of the NYLAG Legal Clinic for Pro Se Litigants is separate from any appointment of counsel by the court. A request for appointment of counsel requires a separate application and the decision whether to appoint counsel is entirely up to the court. Even if a litigant has consulted with Clinic staff, unless they retain other counsel and that counsel enters a notice of appearance, they remain unrepresented; are responsible for doing whatever is necessary in connection with the case; and must still submit all court papers to the Pro Se Intake Unit, located in Room 105 of the Daniel Patrick Moynihan Courthouse, 40 Foley Square, New York, New York, or by following the court's instructions for filing via email as a pro se litigant.

Clinic Staff Cannot:

- Assist with federal civil cases that belong in a different federal court, such as the Eastern District of New York, which covers of New York, which covers Brooklyn, Queens, Staten Island, and Nassau and Suffolk Counties;
- Assist with an appeal of your federal case;
- Assist with state court cases, bankruptcy court cases, or criminal cases;
- Pay any of the costs associated with filing or defending a lawsuit in federal court;
- File documents with the court on your behalf;
- Appear on your behalf other than representation at a mediation through the Southern District's Alternative Dispute Resolution Program, a court-ordered settlement conference, or, in appropriate cases, a deposition;
- Write court documents for you; or
- Conduct an investigation into the facts of your case.

Clinic Staff May Decline Assistance If:

- NYLAG has already given advice to your opponent;
- Your legal problem is beyond the scope of matters handled by the clinic;
- Providing assistance would conflict with the New York Rules of Professional Conduct;
- Your income and/or assets are high enough to allow you to retain private counsel; or
- NYLAG determines, in its professional legal judgement, that (i) you have refused to cooperate with the Clinic's counsel or follow the Clinic's advice; (ii) any assistance would be unreasonably difficult for NYLAG to carry out; or (iii) your case is or will become frivolous, unreasonable, groundless, or without merit.
